While training with the 2nd Torpedo Division off Jeju, Miyuki and Inazuma collided. In the aftermath, Inazuma took minor damage, but Miyuki sank while being towed back
Inazuma-chan collided with someone,
So I had to take her to the docks.
You get that kind of job a lot, Naka-chan.
Eh?
Really? You think so~?
But I think everyone is relying on you.
I don't want to be an errand girl!
Hmph—
I know—! Even though Naka-chan is an idol!

While being constructed in Yokohama, the Great Kanto Earthquake of 1923 struck Naka caught fire in her berth, and subsequently needed to be partially scrapped and rebuilt

...
Th... Then I'm going on an expedition...
B-Be careful...
Naka-chan is so cute...!
Ahhhhh!
But the Naka-chan who's afraid of earthquakes and thunder is adorably girly...!
She might be really cool when she's helping people,

Jintsuu and Naka recieved the same standardized remodels after Naka burnt down.
Due to the fire and Naka's subsequent scrapping, construction came after the completion of Jintsuu.
After reconstruction, Naka's prow changed from the planned soup-spoon appearance to a Double Clipper kind of design.

The admiral scheduled us into a practice battle at 3! Let's all go together!
Welcome back, Naka-chan.
I made it back-!
But...
Really?
Sendai-nee-san...
Is still asleep...
HMM...

Oooh... Even so, Naka-chan definitely won't swerve from her path!
Agh, that's enough! All we've done lately is train carriers.
Come on-! Naka-chan couldn't do anything but watch!!
Kaga-san always goes all out.
What the heck was that-!
So cute...

Naka-chan and the CLs can indeed use coal instead of petroleum. In order to increase the effectiveness, the Sendai-class were given extra equipment and four chimneys!

But if we don't fill up, the Admiral will scold us...
Like I thought, it's probably better to drink regular fuel...
Well let's give it a try! Naka-chan is digging in—!
H-How is it?
It's... Not great... But... At least it looks like it worked.
Uwahh—

Now then! It's about time for a bath!
Ahh, I took one this morning, so I'm good.
Ehh, again -!?
The three of us should go together once in a while...
Ehh—? But I like going to bed squeaky clean in the morning...

Then~ You can do it in the morning and at night!

A Merry Christmas with Naka-Chan ☆

Koruri here.
I made a book about the Sendai class sisters.

The Sendai sisters are irresistibly cute.
Now that I've safely finished this manuscript,
I'm going to go play with Santa Naka-chan.
